13. Taxes Applicable in India

- a. If you are located in India, starting July 1 2017, you will be charged a Goods and Services tax (GST) on all the purchases you make. GST is the new tax law that replaces current indirect taxes such as service tax, Value Added Tax, excise tax, certain state and central cesses taxes in India. This is a dual taxation model where both the Indian states and Indian central government apply tax on services and goods. GST consists of 3 types of taxes: central tax, state tax and integrated tax. AuthBridge's location that provides the services and your purchase location determine which tax will be applied to your purchase. These are the rates:
 - Central GST (CGST) rate: 9%
 - State GST (SGST) rate : 9%
 - Integrated GST (IGST) rate: 18%Note : Advertisers with a bill-to address in Haryana (i.e. Intra-state service) will be charged CGST + SGST rates. All others are charged the IGST rate.
 - GST for SEZ clients is 0%
 - GST rate is subject to change according to government regulations
- b. If you are receiving services from AuthBridge Research Services Pvt. Ltd. then your tax ID will determine which tax is applied to your purchase. Goods and Services Tax Identification Number (GSTINs) are mandatory for business accounts, but optional for individual accounts. About Tax Deducted at the Source (TDS) TDS certificates are required every quarter. (More information can be found on the Income Tax Department of India website.) Certificates for quarters ending in June, September, December, and March need to be issued by July 30th, October 30th, January 30th, and May 15th, respectively. No TDS certificates for the previous financial year will be accepted if sent after April 30th of the current financial year. For example, all certificates for fiscal year 2017-18 should be sent no later than April 30, 2018.
